

I ask that you reject the request of Indiana banks to appeal the "Do Not Call" list for Indiana. This law has protected consumer privacy and is desired by the large majority of the state. If the banks are confused about the ruling, the easy solution is for them to quit telemarketing in our state. Telemarketing is an intrusion of privacy.